

Sweet Memories : Abha - Project 2016

With all the blessings, good wishes and wholehearted participation of our members and well wishers the 7th project of our organization Abha was concluded on 21st of February 2016. The beneficiaries of this project, were around 100 under privileged primary school kids, of “Charabari Sardarpara Prathamik Vidyalaya”, which is situated in a remote village of Haroa, North 24 Parganas.

This primary school is located in village Charabari, which is in Haroa, around 45 km by road from Kolkata. Most of the students of this school are inhabitants of the Adibasi belt there and lead a difficult life making their ends meet. . In a discussion with the school authorities the representative of our organization came across some heart touching incidents of these downtrodden people. The families are mostly landless labors and their principal occupation is working as laborers in road construction, rice rowing and laborers at house construction, working as guard in fisheries and bheries. They survive on day to day earnings. Though the books were supplied by the school authorities, copies and other writing materials are supposed to be provided by the parents of these students, which most of the time they fail to do so. Thus our journey with those young ones began here, to show our solidarity and to develop a sense of feeling that they are not alone in this beautiful world.

Once again, with the whole hearted support and tireless effort of our members and well wishers, we could manage to provide educational kit comprising of School Bag, copies (writing and drawing), pen, pencil, eraser, cutter, scale, pastel colors etc to these 100 kids which will provide total educational support to them for the next one year and reduce the burden of their parents.

Apart from this there are plans to carry out some renovation work in the school premises in the near future.
